Quick Fire Grammar

Underline the adverbs in each of these sentences.

- 1) Holding on only by her knees, shamelessly showing off to a crowd of children gathered at the bottom.
- 2) As she tickled their tummies, she wished silently that Violet would hurry up and get safely down from the tree.
- 3) Violet lurched forward, grabbing wildly at branches.

Can you improve the sentence by adding adverbs to give more detail about the verb?

- 1) Violet jumped down from the tree.
- 2) Stanley mocked Violet as she started to make her way home.
- 3) The man in the window stared at Violet.

PE

Just because you're keeping safe inside doesn't mean you can't exercise!

Beat the teacher challenge!

How many star jumps can you do in one minute?
 How many sit ups can you complete in one minute?

Mr Collins is trying to complete 100 sit ups a day. Can you do half that amount?
